Any other suggestions:

- Public Transport planning is an important area along with NMT and therefore, it shall be covered along with NMT
- Learning through examples (may be relevant local examples) will make the subject interesting
- There are new areas in transport planning may be advanced for B. Tech level such as
 - Transit oriented development
 - Multi-Modal Integration
 - Climate resilient Infrastructure
 - E-Vehicles (very important as part of decarbonization) and charging infrastructure
 - Urban Street design
